

On The Green

Message from The Club Committee.

After a long lock down the committee have some good news at last, from Monday 9th June the Green will be open for all members who have paid their subscriptions. There will be restrictions in place, please follow them they are in place for your safety.

The Green will be open daily from 11am to 8pm. Singles and Pairs only. Play is by booking a rink only. Rink time will be restricted to One and a Half hours. One hour bowling, and 15 min before and after your Game for cleaning of equipment.

Mats and Jacks will be in one corner of the green together with Spray and Hand Gel, please use this before and after your game. One Jack at each end of the rink only to be placed by your feet. Please keep to the right hand side of the rink when changing ends keeping social distancing.

Please be careful when entering the green, we don't have steps at the moment they are on order.

You can book a rink by Telephoning Rod Somerfield 01984 634142 Rod has BT screening so when asked for your name just say Green Booking and Rod will answer.

The Clubhouse will not be open.

Some painting and cleaning is going on at the club at the moment, thank you to the volunteers doing the work.

The new Lockers have arrived and will be allocated to members who have paid in due course.

Enjoy your bowling, but please follow the instructions, they are in place for your safety. The club will monitor the situation weekly. Thank you.
